For all hosted parties, the member hosting the party must be in attendance at all times during the party.

A member can only host a party at one location. If a large party exceeds a single areas people limit, two members will have to co-host.

If the club is unable to provide guards for a desired party time, a member may hire contracted certified lifeguards. If a party is to have 15 or more people in attendance, the hosting member must contact the General Manager regarding the requirement of lifeguards.

By signing below, you have read and understand the Brookside Club of Saratoga’s rules and regulations and will make sure all adult chaperones in attendance of the party will enforce these rules.

I understand that I will be held financially responsible for any damages to Brookside property caused by any attendees of my member hosted party. I will not hold Brookside responsible for any lost or missing belongings in addition to any injury that may occur during the party.
